Wine List

By the bottle

Sparkling Wine:

Alexander; Beechworth

$42

Superbly precise champagne, refreshing and intense, subtle toast and honey complexity woven through pure chardonnay fruits. Engaging, finely textured bubbles; oozes class and style, and really flavoursome.

DIVICI Prosecco; Yarra Valley

$42

A pale yellow colour, delicate and complex with fruity notes of peach and green apple with an undertone of lemon. Notes of acacia and rose flowers combined with a light spicy bouquet.

Rosé:

St Hallett Rosé; Barossa Valley

$41

The palate is vibrant and succulent with an abundance of fresh strawberries and cream, rose petal and white peach that fill the senses, while clean cut acidity gives the palate gorgeous length. The finish is fine and elegant with lingering flavours of raspberry and strawberry with a subtle savoury hint.

White wines:

Chardonnay

Tambo Chardonnay; Gippsland Lakes $49

Fresh, bright, modern Gippsland Lakes Chardonnay with lime and mineral notes and a clean lingering finish. Unwooded Elegance from Gippsland.

Beechworth Estate Chardonnay; Beechworth $49

This wine has luscious peachy fruit characters and spicy French oak. This Beechworth Chardonnay has undergone traditional Burgundy wine making techniques which have enhanced the complex nature of the wine.

McGuigan Shortlist Chardonnay; Adelaide Hills $48

A modern style of Chardonnay with lemon, honey and stone fruit aromas integrated with delicate cedar notes. The palate has a fresh and zingy profile which balances its full-body, vanilla notes and rich mouthfeel.

Sauvignon Blanc

Beechworth Estate Sauvignon Blanc; Beechworth $49

This Beechworth Sauvignon Blanc has undergone traditional barrel ferment, which has enhanced the complex nature of the wine. The aromas possess zesty fruit flavours and a wine that is crisp, elegant and refreshing.

Pizzini Sauvignon Blanc; King Valley, $49

Fresh-cut herbs, tropical fruits and sweet musk on the nose. The palate has tangy, crisp appeal with green apple flavours, a little Tahitian lime citrus tang and a zesty, crisp finish.

Mud House Sauvignon Blanc; Marlborough $49

Shows lifted aromas of passionfruit and gooseberry with underlying herbal notes on the nose. A carefully structured balance of green fruits and acidity on the palate. Good depth of flavour with a long dry finish..

Pinot Gris / Pinot Grigio / Arneis/ Riesling

Petaluma Pinot Gris; Adelaide Hills

$49

A light to medium bodied dry white wine. Lovely crunchy pear and delicate florals combine with high natural acidity with minerality to produce an easy drinking style. The creamy complexity from the barrel fermentation and extended yeast contact bring immediate approachability while lemon and lime provides a wonderful lingering fruit finish.

Tobacco Road Pinot Grigio; King Valley

$49

This wine displays a pale straw colour. The nose shows lifted citrus, green apple and nashi pear aromas. These fresh aromas lead to a crisp, light and zesty palate nicely balanced by a subtle savoury finish. We have specifically made this wine in the authentic Italian Pinot Grigio style..

Pizzini Arneis; King Valley (vegan)

$49

The colour is straw with lime green hues. The nose is shows floral and ripe pear characters initially exciting the senses then leading into subtle grassy undertones. The palate is full, flavoursome and complex with pear and subtle quince characteristics. As the wine opens, the palate extends to apricots, almonds and hints of citrus, with our trademark bone-dry finish, lovely grainy texture and long length. Enjoy with spicy Thai basil prawns.

Rolf Binder Riesling; Eden Valley

$49

This Riesling is delightfully aromatic, displaying delicate jasmine floral and ripe citrus aromas on the nose. Hay straw with pale green hues in appearance. The wine has a creamy mouth feel with layers of lemon and apple crumble.

Red Wines:

Merlot / Grenache / Sangiovese/ Montepulciano

DB Wine Maker Selection Merlot; Yarra Valley $55

This Merlot displays a deep vibrant red hue. A bouquet of intensely concentrated blackberry and plum, complemented by some integrated gentle choc oak. Mouth coating silky tannins and balanced acidity, leading to a soft, generous finish. Delicious.

Beechworth Cabernet/Merlot; Beechworth $55

This blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot shows typical blackcurrant, plum and varietal characters with medium to full-bodied structure. It was produced using traditional winemaking techniques including the use of new Old French Barriques.

Wizardry Grenache; Heathcote $51

The sun loving southern Europe born Grenache is the wizard of warmer climates. Clever, surprising, magical, with a bit of dark arts thrown in. This wine style is gentle, textured, gorgeous, fragrant, drinkable, medium bodied and great with food.

Gapsted Limited Release Sangiovese; Myrtleford $65

A vibrant, fresh feeling expression of Sangiovese. This is strong in pomegranate and cranberry red berry fruit character, warm dusty spice, fine, slender tannins and is offset with freshening, vibrant acidity. It sits perfectly on medium weight, tightens well in the palate and generally feels like something you would like to drink a lot of.

Gapsted Valley Selection Montepulciano; King Valley $65

This wine displays a dark inky red colour. This wine exhibits all the characteristics of a high-quality vintage. It has excellent tannin ripeness and a wonderful depth of fruit flavour. The nose is complex with blackcurrant, violets, plums and toasted oak. The palate has great presence, with an abundance of blackberry, stewed plums, offset by sweet spicy oak.

Cabernet Sauvignon

Katnook Estate “Founder’s Block” Cabernet Sauvignon; Coonawarra $59

Aromas of fresh red and blue fruits which flow through to the palate with a touch of chocolate and peppery spice. Deep red with purple hues in appearance. Attractive and complex aroma layers of blackcurrant, dark forest berries, ripe plum and hints of mint, chocolate and vanillin. A well structured, medium bodied wine expressing rich, dark berry fruits, sweet spice and subtle oak maturation characters on the palate.

Beechworth Cabernet Sauvignon; Beechworth $55

This wine is a rich and deep red colour. The nose is complex pretty clay earth with layers of red flower scent and fresh wooded forest. The palate is full of fruit flavours like dried cranberry and sarsaparilla root with an enduring finish. Long and persistent, fine tannins that draw through and lively acid frame the primary fruit flavours.

Hollick;The Bard Cabernet Sauvignon; Coonawarra $59

Totally opaque black dark red colour with a deep dark red hue. Nosing offers up aromas of blackcurrant infused with a mix of bay leaf and black olive which are trailed by cedary tobacco notes and traces of capsicum. Medium bodied, rich blackcurrant and mulberry fruits overlay cedary tobacco, earthy black olive and spicy bay leaf characters. Fine grained tannins with a long elegant conclusion.

Pinot Noir

The Coldstream Guard Pinot Noir; Yarra Valley $51

Open and expressive aromas of mulled strawberry, forest floor and clove. Plush and polished palate, delivering a riot of red berry perfume, and velvet finish throughout, enhanced by damp earth, mushroom and stalk and charry barrel harmony.

Passing Clouds Pinot Noir; Bendigo $52

Passing Clouds Pinot Noir is a delightfully vibrant Pinot Noir, crystal clear with a lively bouquet and flavours of Morello cherry and strawberry. Showing a well balanced integration of oak and spiciness.

Durif / Saperavi

Gapsted Ballerina Canopy Durif; Myrtleford $69

The first you see is a deep inky red color. The nose shows intense spice, vanilla, raisins, fruitcake and blood plums. These complex aromas lead to a palate of intense dark chocolate characters with complex toasty oak. This wine is weighty and robust with harmonious tannins.

Gapsted Limited Release Saperavi; Myrtleford $69

The very deep purple/red colour promises pure taste pleasure. The nose shows complex aromas of spearmint, liquorice, spicy plum, star anise and blackcurrant. These lead to a full bodied and textured wine with rich fleshy plum and fruitcake flavours, solid tannins and a long persistent juicy finish.

Shiraz / Shiraz Blends

Beechworth Estate Shiraz; Beechworth $55

With the traditional range of flavours of blackberry, pepper and spicy cashew nut, this Beechworth Shiraz has a wonderful firm structure, which will develop in complexity.

Rhythm and Rhyme Shiraz; South Australia $55

Vibrant purple and berrylicious, red and blue berries on the nose, with a savoury leather note. Juicy and bright, light-medium body, with red fruits, juicy tannins and a drying finish.

Passing Clouds Bendigo Shiraz; Bendigo $70

Brooding and complex dark berry fruit, blackberry predominant with red liquorice and spice in the background. Rich and mouth filling medium bodied Shiraz, fine tannins and attractive bright fruit at the end of the long palate.

Black Jack Chortle's Edge; Bendigo Victoria $79

Crimson red in colour. Darker summer fruits predominate, with some mixed spice. Palate is crisp, highlighting a core nucleus of dark fruits, raspberry and cherry ; a savouriness adds complexity and depth. Fine grape and French oak tannins adds structure and finesse.

Angove Family Crest Shiraz; Mc Laren Vale $55

The Angove Family's Family Crest red wines are simply the essence of McLaren Vale winemaking. These are some of our favourite wines to make. This Shiraz has multiple old vine components delivering a wine that is deep red with purple hues. Spice, pepper, red cherry and black chocolate aromas precede a palate of dark chocolate and liquorice, red cherry/raspberry with mouth-filling presence and soft lingering

Tempus Two Copper Series GSM; Hunter Valley $55

A rich, vibrant and medium to full bodied wine with complex flavours of red berries, chocolate and coffee. Very fine, dusty tannins complete the wine and provide great length and persistence.

Sweet / Dessert Wines

Willowglen Moscato; Yarra Valley

$42

Freshly crushed grapes, with a little musk and a hint of lime juice. Frizzante style. Lively and fresh with freshly crushed grapes, a squeeze of lemon and ginger on the finish.

Vat 5 Botrytis Semillion; Yarra Valley

$52

A vibrant mouth feel of stone fruits, citrus, a twist of caramel and subtle oak interplay combined with a slight touch of refreshing acidity give this wine a beautifully balanced and lingering finish.
